

Code of Conduct

Adey Cerebral Palsy Charitable Association

This Code of Conduct outlines the ethical and professional standards expected of all staff, volunteers, and representatives of Adey Cerebral Palsy Charitable Association.

Section 1: Introduction & Purpose

This Code of Conduct establishes the ethical and professional standards expected of all individuals affiliated with Adey Cerebral Palsy Charitable Association. It serves as a guiding framework to ensure that our work is carried out with integrity, respect, and accountability.

The Code reflects Adey’s mission to support and empower children with cerebral palsy and their caregivers through inclusive, rights-based, and community-driven approaches. It reinforces our commitment to creating a safe, dignified, and equitable environment for all stakeholders.

This Code applies to all staff members, board directors, volunteers, consultants, and partner organizations working with or representing Adey.

Section 2: Core Values & Principles

- Inclusion – We promote equal participation and dignity for all, regardless of ability or background.
- Respect – We treat every individual with compassion, empathy, and fairness in all interactions.
- Transparency – We operate with openness, honesty, and clarity in our decisions and communications.
- Accountability – We take full responsibility for our actions and uphold the trust placed in us by caregivers, children, and donors.
- Non-discrimination – We reject all forms of bias or exclusion based on disability, gender, ethnicity, religion, or socioeconomic status.
- Safeguarding – We prioritize the safety, protection, and well-being of children and vulnerable persons in every aspect of our work.

Section 3: Standards of Behavior

- Maintain a high level of professionalism in conduct, appearance, and communication.
- Treat colleagues, caregivers, and children with respect, patience, and cultural sensitivity.
- Use Adey’s resources—including finances, equipment, and facilities—responsibly and only for authorized purposes.
- Protect the confidentiality of all beneficiary data, organizational records, and sensitive information.

Section 4: Safeguarding & Protection

- Any form of physical, emotional, or sexual abuse, neglect, or exploitation is strictly prohibited.

- All staff and volunteers are required to report suspected abuse immediately through designated reporting channels.
- We are committed to maintaining safe, nurturing environments where children and caregivers feel protected and valued.

Section 5: Conflict of Interest & Integrity

- Disclose any personal, financial, or professional interests that could influence decision-making or create bias.
- Do not accept bribes, gifts, or favors that compromise ethical standards or organizational integrity.
- Act in the best interest of Adey and its beneficiaries at all times.

Section 6: Compliance & Accountability

- Adhere to all applicable Ethiopian laws, donor requirements, and internal policies and procedures.
- Violations of this Code will result in appropriate disciplinary action, which may include warnings, suspension, termination, or legal referral.
- All staff are expected to cooperate with audits, evaluations, and investigations.

Section 7: Reporting & Whistleblowing

- Use confidential and secure channels to report misconduct, violations, or safeguarding concerns.
- Whistleblowers are protected from retaliation and will be supported throughout the reporting process.
- Reports will be handled promptly, fairly, and with discretion.

Section 8: Acknowledgment

I have read and understood the Code of Conduct. I agree to uphold its principles and standards in all my work with Adey Cerebral Palsy Charitable Association.
